THANK YOU!!

Jacob Takes Esau's Blessing

Genesis 27:1-27

Dear Family,

First, let me say thank you for all that you have done. We are now in the heart of our second quarter and it is going well. My current classes are: Numbers-Deuteronomy, hermeneutics, Hebrew history, English, homiletics, and life of Christ. As of right now they are all going extremely well.

Also, returned from our campaigns a few weeks ago. I went to Chalmette, Louisiana, which is about ten minutes from New Orleans. The campaign was in my opinion a huge success! The group that I was apart of knocked well over two thousand doors and set up numerous Bible studies. The congregation down there will hopefully continue to grow not only in number but also most importantly in spiritual blessings.

It was nice to be home for the holidays. It was nice to be able to visit with family and friends. It was also nice to be able to eat some "home-cooked" food. Eating fast food and living off peanut butter and jelly gets old after a few weeks, so it is always pleasant to eat good food. I hope that every one of you also had a great thanksgiving.

I have also been preaching quiet a bit here lately and Lord willing I will continue to do so. In addition to preaching I'm currently teaching the teenage class on Sunday morning at the Collierville church of Christ. It is such a blessing to be able to preach and teach the word of God.

Once again if at anytime you need me to fill in and preach, teach, or do anything else, please feel free to call and set that up. I would love to help in any capacity if you need me too. The experience is always needed and anytime I have the opportunity to preach is an opportunity I do not want to miss.

I look forward to seeing you and hearing from you in the future. Again, I thank you for all that you have done for me. I also hope that you continue to do so. Because without the support of Godly congregations like yourself, I would not be able to experience this great opportunity that is set before me.

In Christian Love,

T.R. Webb

4. Confess to others your belief in Jesus (Mt. 10.32-33; Rm. 10.9-10).
5. Be baptized to have your sins forgiven (Acts 2.38; 22.16).
