Our Sister Frances Hendrickson
Gone on to her Reward

For years Frances has been a part of this congregation, a part that worshipped and served at every opportunity and made many opportunities when they were not always obvious. She was an example of service and dedication to young and old alike.

Last Wednesday morning, Frances lost her battle with Alzheimer's disease. For some time Frances had been in poor health because of this horrible disease, yet despite losing this battle, Frances won the war because she was a Christian. More than that, to her children she was a mother, to Louis she was a wife, to us here at Hardin she was a friend and a sister in Christ. Our sympathy goes to the family and all here at Hardin will certainly miss her.

Frances, we will see you on the other shore!
