*VBS NEWS & NEEDS*

As has been previously announced, we are having a joint VBS this year with Union Hill. We had a meeting last Sunday afternoon where it was decided that the theme would be the Ten Plagues and our teaching responsibilities would be plagues 6-10. Therefore, we will need five teachers and helpers each responsible for three nights of the VBS (the VBS is four nights, so you will get one night off). Please see Trice Dunn or Tim Reynolds to sign-up or get more information.

*THANK YOU*

...to all the ladies who worked so hard on the Ladies Night this past Friday night. Ideas were harvested and ladies were encouraged. It was a great success! Thank you!!!

Food For Thought—How Friendly Are You?

He strode into the foyer with a short petite lady in a print dress, pausing for just a minute at the water fountain before sauntering into the auditorium. Looking neither left nor right he slowly escorted the pretty lady down the main aisle and sat down on the third row from the front, his hat still firmly on his head. After a few minutes the men at the back of the auditorium huddled together like the players in that afternoon's football game. There was a whispered conference, with furtive looks down the aisle. Finally, one man detached himself from the huddle and hesitantly started down the aisle, conscious of every eye in the congregation. Some of the congregation looked nervous, some sympathetic, and others supportive and determined, as if to say, "It must be done." Trying to walk in his most distinguished manner, he strolled down to the third row, leaned in toward the man with the hat, and said, "Excuse me."

The man coolly looked up past his narrow hat brim and cocked one eye, "Yes?"

Carefully clearing his throat, the man said, "You need to take your hat off in the Lord's house."

"Why is that?" the man asked

"Because it's disrespectful to wear it in here," he explained, nervously wiping his brow with his handkerchief.

"I see," replied the man who smiled at the nervous usher and gently removed his hat. "I didn't mean any disrespect," he said, "I just made a bet with my wife that I could finally get one of you to speak to me."
