Tearing Down or Building Up

I watched them tearing a building down, a gang of men in a busy town; with a heave-ho and a lusty yell they swung a beam, and the building fell.

I asked the foreman, "Are these men skilled, and the men you'd hire if you had to build?" He gave a laugh and said, "No indeed, just common labor is all I need; I can easily wreck in a day or two what builders have taken a year to do."

And I thought to myself as I went my way, which of these roles have I tried to play? Am I a builder who works with care, measuring life by the rule and square?

Am I shaping my deeds to a well made plan, patiently doing the best I can? Or am I a wrecker who walks the town content with the labor of tearing down?

THIS WEEK'S MEMORY VERSE:

Deuteronomy 29:29 (ESV)

"The secret things belong to the Lord our God, but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.

(Last Week: 1Corinthians 12.12)
