OMISSIONS...sorry (jdw)

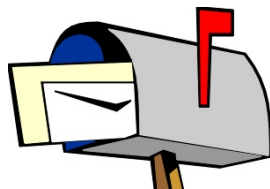

Amy Nelson responded asking for the prayers of the church through some difficult times. Hanna Guthrie was baptized for the forgiveness of her sins. Pray for and encourage these sisters in Christ!

THANK YOU

To the Reynolds for hosting the bonfire and hayride and to those who put so much work into the Harvest Party. These activities were enjoyable and a blessing to all who attended because of the work you put into them...THANKS!!!

* IN THE MAIL *

A BIG THANK YOU. Words cannot express how much I appreciate the cards, visits and prayers during my stay at the hospital, I love all of you.

Suffering Makes Christians Want to Ask God Why.

And I think that's okay.

You'll hear from some that doubt and questioning are not things of which God is fond. I am not one of those people.

The main reason for that? Scripture. Check out Psalm 10: "Why, O LORD, do you stand far off? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?"

Here's my question: does asking "why?" during suffering demonstrate a lack of faith?

Consider this: if faith is confidence that God is who He says He is and will do what He says He will do...then it seems asking "why?" may stem from the presence of faith. By asking why, we're essentially saying, "God, if you are who you say you are and will do what you've promised to do—and I believe that you are and that you will—then why would you do this?? I'm confused!"

As someone pointed out to me once, you can't be mad at someone who doesn't exist.
