Welcome Visitors!!!

We are happy that you came. Please let us get to know you and fill out a visitor's card for us.

* YOU ARE GREAT! *

Last Sunday it was announced that from our offering anything over $1,500 would go to assist Neil & Mary Vick in the coming months since he, as you know, has been diagnosed with cancer and is unable to report to work. Hardin church of Christ responded in true form! You gave over $5,000 to help this brother and sister in these upcoming difficult times. I am proud of your response and pray that you continue to find worthy works and give of your means and talents to them!

~Daniel

A PREGNANT Question

I've got a question for you today that I heard (again) recently:

What would you attempt for God if you knew you would not fail?

This question is pregnant with possibility. If success was guaranteed, what would you try? Where would you go? Who would it involve?

What would you attempt for God if you knew you would not fail?

I'm thinking one of three things is true for you:

1. You have no idea what that thing would be.
2. You know what that thing is, but you haven't attempted it.
3. You know what it is, and you've done it or are doing it right now.

If you're number 3, congrats. I'll bet you and God are pretty close these days.

If you're number 2, what's holding you back? Fear of failure? Lack of faith? Those are questions worth answering.

If you're number 1, I feel for you because I've been there. No clear vision of what could and should be—nothing driving you forward each day. The only solution is getting close to God and asking Him to bless you with a burden.

Wherever you fall on this spectrum, this is a question worth being bothered by for a few days.

So what is it? What would you attempt for God if you knew you would not fail?

I dare you to try it.

~Justin Gerhardt

MEMORY VERSE:

Exodus 34:7 (ESV) Keeping steadfast love for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but who will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children and the children's children, to the third and the fourth generation."

(Last Week: Joshua 24.15)
