All You Can Take

Have you ever had a phrase you've heard all your life to fall on your ears as if you are hearing it or seeing it for the very first time?

This is an old one and today it ran through my head with a new spin:

Have you ever heard someone talk about a fellow employ, child, friend, associate and say "_____ is really getting the best of me"? It's usually said with a sense of frustration and exhaustion. Sort of, I've had about all I can take!

Let me ask you are question. Who is getting the best of you: your best service, your best energies, your best attention of the day, your best gifts, your best?

"Who are you letting get the best of you?"

-Robbie Mackenzie

MEMORY VERSE:

Ruth 1.16 (ESV) "where you go I will go, and where you lodge I will lodge. Your people shall be my people, and your God my God."

(Last Week: Judges 5.31)
