VISITORS TO SERVICES WITH YOU!

THANK YOU! BY INVITING AND BRINGING VISITORS YOU ARE MAKING THIS CHURCH GROW!

Hurry Up!

I don't have all day! Alright...any time now!

I believe that all of us have said to ourselves, others, or just thought to ourselves these phrases or phrases similar to them. Many of us often become impatient with even the smallest delays in our lives. Like our expectations for speedy service in our everyday lives, God has made promises to us (i.e. blessings in this life and the next, troubles, joy, etc.) and we often would like those things as soon as possible (not for all of his promises, some are not pleasant, i.e. persecution).

The Bible uses the analogy of the farmer who plants a seed; he plants, fertilizes, irrigates and then he must wait. The same is true for our personal and collective growth. We want to grow individually (grow closer to God, the church, our families, etc.) and so we study and pray for growth and we want to grow the body of believers at Hardin (or if you worship with another congregation, wherever it is that you worship) so we plant the seeds with invitations to worship services, Bible studies, activities and even with occasional admonitions or opportunities we are provided with to answer questions from others.

Granted some of the seeds you plant will not take root or will be choked out, however, some will provide a yield which can then create more and more yield. Don't give up! Keep a plantin'!

Daniel
